

2nd Corinthians 4:7-18

Jars of Clay

For Greater Reflection

2 Cor 4:7-12

Do people see my strength or His glory? Am I willing to be “weak” for people to see Him more clearly?

Have I allowed the challenges of following God discourage me from reflecting Him?

What areas of my life need to be different to better help others see Him?

For Additional Study - Consider: 1 Corinthians 1:18-31,3:18-23

2 Cor 4:13-15

How do my schedule, relationships, and conversations show the importance of God’s grace being seen and experienced by others?

Do I believe God’s grace can make a difference or am I struggling with just getting by?

How can I grow in my confidence that God desires to reach people through me?

For Additional Study - Consider: Jeremiah 1:4-10; Acts 1:6-8; Philippians 4:12-13; Romans 16:19

2 Cor 4:16-18

What might be some afflictions in my life? Have they caused me to lose heart? What will help me reframe them as “momentary” and “light”?

What will remind me of God’s ongoing spiritual renewal in my life?

How can I fix my attention on the eternal over the temporary?

For Additional Study - Consider: Hebrews 3:1,12:1-3; Philippians 3:12-14; Psalm 46
