

Who's Your Neighbor?

Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him.

1 Corinthians 1:26-29

Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst. But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his unlimited patience as an example for those who would believe on him and receive eternal life. Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 1:15-16

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 4:32

CALLING ALL BROKEN PEOPLE

Matthew 9:9-13

Matthew 9:9-As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me," he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

10-While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and "sinners" came and ate with him and his disciples.

11-When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"

12-On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

13-But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."
